EVENT OVERVIEW

The largest and oldest Chanukah event in the Sacramento region is open to all and provides an immersive cultural experience including traditions, foods and activities for children and adults. As the largest event of its kind drawing upwards of 1,000 people and counting, each year has seen successively larger and more varied audiences and a wider range of commercial participants.

Recognized as the premier Chanukah event in the region the event is attended by families from every segment of the community, local and regional political leaders, clergy, as well as schools and students. The program includes games for all ages, arts and crafts, entertainment, music, traditional foods including latkes cooked on site, an authentic Israeli food court, and gift shop.

Admission is free with games and food passes available at a low price.

Proceeds go to the Constant Caring Initiative of the Chabad Jewish Community Center of Folsom. The program is dedicated to assisting local families (regardless of race, creed, or religion) with immediate support and connections to local and regional social services for long term assistance.
